THE PRIME MINISTER

I am delighted to send my warmest wishes to everyone at Bhaktivedanta Manor as you celebrate your 50th anniversary.

It has been my absolute privilege and pleasure to visit Bhaktivedanta Manor on a number of occasions, most recently for the Janmashtami festival in August 2022. The Manor has hosted many dignitaries and visitors, not just to witness the wonderful surroundings, but to take part in many events since it was established in 1973.

It is not just a place of great spirituality but also an incredible cultural centre, hosting activities such as yoga, meditation, as well as many festivals each year. I know it is a special place of worship and an important place for education for thousands of school children who visit each year. Bhaktivedanta Manor provides a sanctuary for those of all faiths and none, spanning a wide remit from hosting many civil weddings, to the Manor's renowned cow protection programme which is exemplary to so many.

You have built up something very special over the last 50 years, and I hope the next 50 are equally special, and that Bhaktivedanta Manor continues to welcome everyone to see for themselves what a truly inspirational place it is.

Many congratulations on this milestone.
